

The Cincinnati Insurance Company

Personal automobile protection

When you select Cincinnati's automobile coverage, you receive your financial seat belt, air bag and crash helmet all rolled into one. It protects you from financial bumps in the road.

The basics

Bodily Injury Liability protects you against damages for which you are legally responsible because of a covered auto accident that causes bodily harm, including death, to others.

Property Damage Liability protects you against damages for which you are legally responsible because of a covered auto accident that causes damage to another person's property.

Medical Payments Coverage pays expenses for necessary medical and funeral services for you, your family or others while riding in a covered vehicle when it is involved in an accident, regardless of who is at fault.

Some states offer Personal Injury Protection (no fault) coverages instead of or in addition to Medical Payments Coverage.

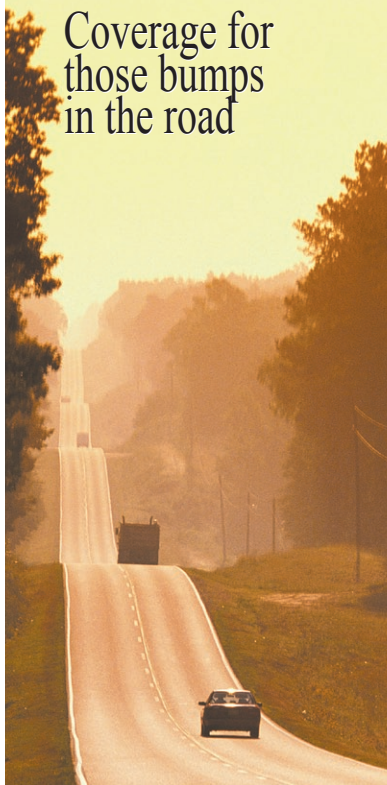

Uninsured Motorist Coverage pays for damages arising from bodily injury to you and your resident family members when another driver is legally responsible for the auto accident and does not have bodily injury liability coverage.

Underinsured Motorist Coverage pays for damages arising from bodily injury to you and your resident family members when another driver is legally responsible for the auto accident and does not have enough liability coverage to cover your bodily injury loss.

Collision Coverage pays for damage to your insured auto when you have a collision with another vehicle or object.

Other Than Collision Coverage pays for accidental direct damage to your insured auto such as fire, theft, vandalism, breakage of glass and more.

This is not a policy. For a complete statement of the coverages and exclusions, please see the policy contract. Coverages are available in most states. Please contact your agent to determine coverage availability in your state.
